

Arr: L.O.B.

(1) A Rich old miser's courtin' me with houses and with land, my father bids me he promised me his

(1) marry him, and live at his command! But I wont! For ~~an~~ old man is so old! and an old man is so gray! But a young man is ^{so} full of fun! a-way old man a-way! 2) I'd 3) I'd

(2) a way a way ~~old~~ ^{RRR} a way a way old man a-way old man a way a way a way a way sooner rather have a young man who will offer me his dowry with an apple in his hand sooner rather have a young man with his pockets lined in ~~stek.~~ ^{SILK.} Than to have a rusty

(3) A way a way old man with old man and ~~with~~ all his money and land ^{money} So I won't! For an cows and milk

lère fin

old man is so old--! And an old man is so grey But a young man is so full of fun

(4) 2ème fin

(5)

way old man a way. I'd Allez à (2) young man is so full of fun a-way old man a- chantez (2)

(6)

3

way. An old man comes a tototering in, says I'm weary of my life A young man comes a skipping in, says kiss me my dear wife and I will!! For an a way old man away old man a way old man, a way!!

(7)